

Leicester,
May 22/61.

Dear Mr. Chapman,

70 I hardly know what to do about sending to Phillips your message as to materials for "John Brown"; - for I do not believe the English publication, if we get it, is to be a substitute for a new American life of him, which I trust will be written some day. — Still, I think I will send you Webb's note to me on the subject, that you may see, for yourself, just what he proposes to do; - and it may lead you to send him something of use & value. I wish you would. If you see Mr. Turner, you might let him see Webb's letter.

I have not a moment now to reply to your project about a fusion of the St^o with the Lib.

- More than to say that there exists one barrier to any such arrangement, which I suppose to be insuperable, - vizt. that Garrison would never consent to it, so long as he has strength to be an Editor at all. Control of his paper he must have, and full liberty to discuss all moral, spiritual, theological, religious, &c. questions - and all others besides - just as he deems it needful & important.
- He would never feel it right to relinquish this absolute freedom of the Libr. - But I must stop, for the present,

Very sincerely

.Yours

Sam'l May Jr

Please return Webb's note, at y^r convenience.
